Within the Word - Plotting against those whom we should love

Every one of us has been given a vineyard by God, to take care of and nurture, our own little garden so to speak, that we're responsible for. The kingdom of God is also connected very deeply within our own lives, each individually – a life and a vocation from each Baptized will help and contribute to our Heavenly Kingdom. Our families, communities, work, church, and environment are all part of God's vineyard, for He is the author of all of it. God even invites anyone & everyone to help, continue to build it. Jesus after all, is that cornerstone rejected, that we're all building upon it. We are also living stones that extend from Him and add to the foundation of the Church – the mystical bride we're all connected to in Faith.

Jesus is the stone that was thrown out because He was the heir to the vineyard; the parable was completely about Jesus and his works. Friends, God doesn't exclude anyone from His vineyard, even if we've excluded Him; via our sins and just looking away. God desires everyone to come and help, and be apart of his heavenly vineyard. Now days people exclude themselves from God, by walking away from Him and the Church, or failing to tend the vineyard. We see this time and time again throughout the Church's history, and it's no surprise, God built His church on weak, poor sinners. Men and woman who're not perfect. Why? Because He loves the lowly and the humble. He loves those whose hearts are not too proud and who love greatly – saint or sinner God wants us in His vineyard. Sometimes this is just done out of forgetfulness or we're overwhelmed in life. Everything from God is a gift, and taking what he's given us and working hard to produce good fruit for the Kingdom, is what we as baptized Christians are all called to do – to help build God's Realm.

So how should we help? I would dare to invite you, to go out and invite someone back to Church...Go out & ask someone if they even need Church. I will be asking folks, from now until next year, to go out and reach out to someone. We're very much up in the air & all over the place with how our parish is doing. Friends, we're called by God to produce good fruit. Ask yourself, during this time, how am I using God's gifts for others? How can I help build the Kingdom of God? Pray – how can I help & where do I start? Fr. Clayton

St. Mary's Prayer List

Mildred Blank, Vinnie Bellock, Joan Burch, Jim & Adela Hagen, Elizabeth Hall, Roseanne Kenneth, Gloria Kramer, Helen Kwit & Family, Mary Claire Marshall, Anna McGowan, Courtney Miller, Lizzie Mitchell, Tony Oldigs, Lucille Ryczek, Charlotte Rybicki, Leo Schneider, George & Jeri Smith, Jane Torgerson, Rosalee Verette, William Zenk; those who are sick, unemployed, in any need & all the families who are suffering from, unrest, violence and the CoVid-19 pandemic. AND pray for Unity!

Where's Father Clayton? Can you find him? He's hiding around here somewhere...and no it's not at the 1 pm mass or the wedding... Good luck :P

Forming Consciences

for Faithful Citizenship

"In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. . . The obligation to participate in political life is rooted in our baptismal commitment to follow Jesus Christ and to bear Christian witness in all we do." -- Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, No. 13

Time to go to St. Joseph

St. Joseph protected the Holy Family & we can trust ourselves, to him at a time when examples of fatherhood are so needed. We can ask him to help strengthen our families – as well as the bonds of our parish family during this time of hardship.

-St. Joseph, Pray for us!

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary!

The Blessed Virgin Mary promised to Saint Dominic and to all who follow that "Whatever you ask in the Rosary will be granted." She left for all Christians Fifteen Promises to those who recite the Holy Rosary.

Throughout the month of October we will publish the 15 promises in 4 parts because of their length.

Here are the first 4 promises:

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. It will cause good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for Eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means!

"The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary."
