The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him; and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted and you yourself a sword will pierce so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Within the Word - The Holy Family is also...Our Holy Family

Friends, we could all use an extra mother, father and brother now days; and for me the Holy family fits that. I have shared many stories of my family, from joy to tragedy. I have shared my grandfathers humor and my grandmothers wisdom, all of which formed me into the man you call father. It has been nothing but a blessing. Being orphaned in life and brought into a home, my mothers mothers home, and passed around the family six ways from Sunday, was an incredible adventure.

Being raised by an aunt one week and an uncle the next, then dropped off at your great aunt and uncles...was the norm for my sister and I. This wasn't intended to be perceived as unwanted, or I being too much to handle, (I'll be honest that last part is a bit true) But mostly I feel it was because I was wanted and loved, by everyone. Everyone in the family wanted to help raise us. And so they did, mostly because my family deeply cared for my sister and I; and yes it had a lot to do with playing together with my 5 dozen cousins -to me and everyone It was all family. We didn't think of it any other way. All of my aunts and uncles homes were my home. I was never home sick. I was always taken care of. It was a unique childhood, and one I would never take back. My grandparents are the most courageous and loving people I know. They brought my sister and I into their already full home and loved us until we grew wings and left...(and then came back). We were one big happy (trying to be) holy family. What I want to share folks, is that this is, exactly how I feel as the spiritual father and shepherd of St. Mary's Parish. You're my family.

I have also had the wonderful pleasure of being mothered by hundreds of woman, from St. Philips in Rudolph to St. Bronz in Plover, from Queen of the Apostles in Tomah, to my home here at St. Mary's. Having people in your lives becomes family, whether friends or distant relatives, parishioners or neighbors, we're all made in the image of God, our creator; and we are all brothers and sisters in His Son. This kinship gives us the familial right to call God, 'Our Father,' and His son Jesus Christ our Brother; as well as St. Joseph our foster father and lastly Mary the Queen of the Universe our Mother. Just think about that for a second...seriously. Being family and being loved is all we need. It's all that matters. I invite you this Christmas to reflect on the most important treasures of your life...and for me it's the Holy Family....my home family....an all of my Parish families. I would never trade a single moment of it for anything. This is my Christmas present. It's what I have found to be what I hold dear. Take time to do the same. I promise you will be surprised at just how special it really all is...

Fr. Clayton

Where's Father Clayton? Can you find him? He's hiding around here somewhere...and no it's not at the 1 pm mass or the wedding... Good luck : P
