Without the Bread of Life...

We are TOAST

Dear brothers and sisters,

Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

Prayer is communion with God. Prayer can be public or personal, spoken or silent. Prayer is communication with a God who loves us and desires to be in a relationship with us.

Jesus teaches us about the importance of prayer. In the Scriptures, Jesus prays often, morning and night. He prays during critical events in his life and he prays before ministering to people in need. Jesus is a model of prayer for us.

The Gospels are full of references to the prayers of Christ, including these examples:

“After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray.” -Matthew 14:23

“Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, ‘Sit here while I go over there and pray.’” -Matthew 26:36

“Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.” -Mark 1:35

“But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.” -Luke 5:16

“One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God.” -Luke 6:12

“Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up.” -Luke 18:1

Jesus loved His Father and communicated with Him often. He prayed for wisdom and guidance in His earthly ministry. He prayed for others to come to know Him as Savior and Lord. He prayed for the twelve disciples, that God would protect them from “the evil one.” Jesus prayed for God to strengthen their ministry once He departed from them. He prayed with honesty and reverence. He prayed with joy and praise. But most of all, Jesus prayed with expectation. He knew the Father heard His prayers and would respond.

So we are the followers of Jesus, we must spend some time with our Father who is heaven. I request you to find some time to be with the Lord, who is ready to listen to you and answer your prayer.

-Father Chinnappan

Liturgical Ministers' Schedule

Thank you to all who have selflessly donated your time and talent to help with these ministries. Just a couple of housekeeping items; to help with the communication of upcoming schedules it would help very much if we had current contact information.; ie.. cell#, email and landline info. To save the parish the expense of mailing schedules, we would prefer to use electronic methods to communicate. If this does not work for you, that's ok too. In the future, we will also make the schedule available at church for pick up.

Father Clayton Elmhorst will be celebrating the Feast Day Mass for St. Philomena at St. Mary Help of Christians Catholic Church in Briggsville (home of the National Shrine of St. Philomena) on August 11, at 11:00 a.m. The address is N565 County Road A, Briggsville. There will be a free will donation lunch to follow, in the church basement.

Do you know anyone interested in joining the Catholic Church?

Call/email the parish office or sign up at the back of church! RCIA will be starting in September which is fast approaching!

We need a few teachers!

Our CCD program is in need of a couple of teachers for the upcoming school year. Class is on Wed. nights from 7:00-8:00pm. Small classes make for a great connection between catechists and students on their faith journey!

Please pray about this. We are in jeopardy of not being able to provide CCD classes this year if we don't have a few volunteers.

Please contact Sandy Madland at 608-393-2515 or email lyndelldairy@frontier.com

I would like to extend a heartfelt THANK YOU to all the people who prepared food for the luncheon after the funeral of RUBY ALLEN and to all those who worked serving it, plus the myriad of others who helped make the day a success. It all went beautifully, smoothly and without a hitch due to all the people behind the scenes. You are all SO appreciated.

Thank you and God bless,
Kay Rully, daughter of Ruby Allen

Beginning this weekend hymnals will be available at the back of church, as well as worship aids. If you desire a hymnal, please pick one up before Mass, and please return it to the table as you leave.
