Season of Lent & White Martyrdom of Mary

We celebrated the Solemnity of the Annunciation on the 25th of March. Celebrating the Annunciation in the middle of Lent is a good reminder that as God did great things for Mary and through Mary. It is a reminder that God can do marvellous things through us as well.

In the history of mankind one of the greatest examples of self-sacrifice is, what happened at the Annunciation. When Mary gave her 'yes' in the Annunciation and she was in effect giving her okay to her own death warrant.

However, the Annunciation enhances the ability to get to the real meaning of penance, a vital theme in Lent. One of the primary goals of penance is to inspire people to signify and lead them in giving their heart, and of their very selves to God.

Pope Benedict the XVI refers to Mary's unique co-redemptive suffering with Jesus as "Mary is a model of total self-abandonment to God's will: she received in her heart the eternal Word and she conceived it in her virginal womb; she trusted in God and, with her soul pierced by a sword (Lk 2:35), she did not hesitate to share the Passion of her Son, renewing on Calvary at the foot of the Cross, her 'yes' of the Annunciation."

As per Bishop Bossuet, "during Lent, we often focus on the Passion of Christ, and rightly so. But do we realize that absolutely everything He experienced was concurrently suffered in the heart of His Mother? Jesus suffered a literal death that day, but Our Lady underwent a white martyrdom — a martyrdom of the heart." We are also reminded of seven sorrows of Mary at this point.

Kathleen Beckman comes out with 10 little steps to walk with Mary during Lent.

1. Take up Mary's spiritual practices, which likely included, praying the Psalms, meditating on the Scriptures, offering hymns of praise and gratitude to God such as her Magnificat.
2. Imitate Mary's courageous "yes" more intentionally as you walk the Stations of the Cross with her.
3. Imitate Mary's forgiveness and mercy at the foot of the cross where she also forgave her Son's executioners.
4. Imitate Mary's complete focus on her Son Jesus during all the phases of his suffering; and her intercessory prayer for everyone involved.
5. Strive to live Mary's faith, hope and love, simplicity, sacrifice, service and obedience—even in the face of such terrorizing agony.
6. With Mary, sit at the feet of Jesus, choosing the better part—perhaps attend Eucharistic Adoration more frequently and read John's Gospel, Chapter 19.
7. Take up Mary's "beads". Intentionally, live Mary's memories! Linger in contemplation of the Sorrowful Mysteries, asking Mary to help you encounter Jesus in His Passion that you may love him more.
8. Consider when Jesus breathed his last and Mary did as he said, "Behold your son"—John the Beloved. She took him into her heart and brought forth the best of his Priesthood. Consider the vocation of spiritual motherhood or fatherhood of priests.
9. With Mary, receive Holy Communion more often, mindful that Mary helps you to encounter Jesus more intimately.
10. Console the Sorrowful Mother along the Via Dolorosa, perhaps offering to share in her pierced heart for love of God and neighbour.
