A message from Fr. Cryton,

Let's be Merciful as our Heavenly Father is Merciful

24th week of the ordinary time is an invitation to experience the Mercy of God in our day today life. The three parables, the Lost Sheep, Lost Coin and the Prodigal Son given today through the Gospel declare the magnitude of the mercy of God. The three parables are not simply stating the same thing. However, there is a difference.

The sheep went lost through its own foolishness. It did not think of anything. Many of us fall into sinful living because we did not think in time.

The coin was lost not because of its own fault. Most of us are led wrongly through the tempting voices of the world.

The son deliberately went lost through the act of turning back on his father. It clearly states that the love of God can defeat the foolishness of man, the tempting voices and even deliberate act of sinning.

Characteristics of God's Mercy.

1) God's mercy is not subject to the laws of time, in two senses: first, any moment is right for the Good Shepherd to seek out the lost sheep, or for the son to set out for the father's house; second, the door to the Father's house is open 24 hours a day, he has no office hours. No one can say to God: "When I sought you, you were not there."

2) God's mercy never ends, God does not look at the unworthy behavior that we have, nor the number of times we have abandoned or despised him. He only sees the interior movements of the soul that years for forgiveness and the father's embrace. He sees the hesitant steps of one who approaches to say, "I have sinned. Forgive me. God doesn't focus on the type of sin, but on the type of soul.

3) God's mercy transforms people. The people of Israel, in the midst of so many difficulties and in spite of its falls and infidelities, always raised high the flag of a faithful God, redeemer of his people. St Paul's case is illuminating: He put all his talents at the service of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and spent his life for him. We don't know how the story of the two sons finishes, but ... why not think that they ended up becoming dear and faithful children?

God gave us the freedom to choose our own way of life. The more freedom we enjoy, the greater the responsibility we bear, toward others as well as ourselves. Let's be responsible & be merciful as our Heavenly Father is merciful.

Do You Know! - By Deacon Tom

This week we conclude our segment on The Sacraments with looking at Holy Orders! Holy Orders is a "one-time only" sacrament. It is received in levels as three separate ordinations, from deacon to priest to bishop.

Deacons are assistants to the bishop and are ordained to serve. Their service is in three areas: 1. Service to the Word; they proclaim the Gospel. 2. Service in the Liturgy; they assist the priest or bishop during Mass. 3. Service to the community. You will see them bring communion to the homebound, to those in nursing homes, jails and prisons. Service to the community is as far reaching as each individual deacon feels called to minister. Deacons are given faculties to preach and preside at the sacraments of Baptism and Marriages. Deacons also bring Viaticum to the dying. A Clever way of remembering their Ministry is: Hatch, Match and Dispatch!

Priests are ordained to sanctify. They celebrate the Eucharist. They are appointed as pastors and serve the needs (spiritual, emotional, physical,) of the parishioners.

Bishops receive the highest level of Holy Orders. It is often said that bishops have the "fullness of the priesthood," because they alone have the authority to offer all seven sacraments. Bishops appoint priests and deacons to parishes and are in charge of the parishes that make up a diocese.

Once a person is ordained, they are ordained for life! A deacon, priest or bishop can retire from active Ministry but they can never have his Holy orders taken away from him. I hope some of this stuff and the seven sacraments was interesting! It's kind of like things are just neat to know about or Faith. Come on back next week and we will look at something different in this segment of Did You Know!
