Hey Look! The Artist signed His Name!

A message from Fr. Cryton,

Key to possess heavenly possessions

The 26th week of the ordinary time calls us to have a self-examination in our attitudes towards the needy and the poor. The parable of Lazarus and the rich man helps us to understand today, the expectation of God during our short span on earth. I share some lessons taken from a web page.

1. If we are wealthy, it does not mean that we are favored and blessed by God. Material prosperity is not indicative or evidence of spiritual abundance. The rich man in this story had no compassion, love or sympathy for the poor, and there is no reference to his relationship with God, which would have been rather poor. We should not ignore our relationship with God pursuing riches and wealth.
2. Many times, we assume that poverty is a curse. However, it does mean that a person is cursed if he is poor or in debt. Lazarus was a beggar and also sick. It did not mean God was angry and displeased with him. He must have had a strong relationship with God, and his lack of physical possessions and health did not deter him from believing in God. If we are poor, it does not mean that we are cursed and God is annoyed with us. God does not look at our physical or financial state of affairs. He looks at a loving heart that has genuine faith in him.
3. Living with a deep sense of godly contentment, peace, and fullness of God's love will make our time on this beautiful earth worthwhile. How we live our life here will determine how we will spend our eternity. The rich man indulged in the advantages of his wealth and positions afforded to him, without a thought to anything but his happiness. Let's Remember that the decisions we make and the attitudes we exhibit will have lasting consequences. Our choices should be to glorify God and not to satisfy temporal pleasures and selfish ambitions.
4. Never neglect the poor and the oppressed. Cultivate the habit of sharing what we can spare. Taking care of the sick is an important aspect of God's ministry and Self-communication of love. We should practice the art of sacrificial and generous giving. Let's use all our abilities, energies and wealth to honor God by helping the least of people among us.
5. Do we know we cannot escape from judgement? Everyone will be judged according to their works. There are no second chances. The judgement to hell is permanent, and there is no escape out of hell. The rich man had many opportunities to repent before he died. However, he did not and had to face the consequences. We should never refuse to repent of our sins as this life on earth is short, and we can die at any moment. Let's believe in Jesus Christ and accept him as our Lord and savior today. So that we may possess eternal life granted by our gracious Father in Heaven through his beloved Son.

A few Announcements,

Each one of us – whether clergy or lay person, married or single, young or old – is called to grow in the love and knowledge of God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to deepen our understanding of our Catholic Faith. And each one of us is called to pass on that love and knowledge with others.

Through Franciscan at Home online workshops, you will experience personal enrichment and ongoing formation to be able to hand on the Faith, whether in your family, a parish program, a Catholic school or simply with those you meet. Helping others to encounter Jesus Christ and His Church will bear fruit in your life!

Subscribe to Franciscan at Home for free! Workshops are 6-10 minute videos followed by application questions. Visit franciscanathome.com/diocese-la-crosse and scroll to the bottom of the page. On the right, click the middle blue button: "My parish or school is already registered, and I would like to set up my individual free account..." Click "Create an Account." Complete the information and click Save. Select the Diocese of La Crosse from a drop-down menu, and then your Institution = St. Mary, listed first by city and name. Finally, click on the "Sign Up" button.

Mass Offerings

There are many weekday and Saturday 7 pm Masses available! Masses can be said for almost anything; the soul of a deceased loved one, for a special intention, or a friend who is suffering. There is also no better way to show our gratitude to God! Masses can be said for birthdays, anniversaries, in celebration of the reception of the sacraments, or for prayers that have been answered.

The reason that this tradition has been passed on for centuries is because of the many spiritual fruits that result from this form of prayer. The celebration of the Eucharist is the highest form of worship in the Catholic Church because we unite ourselves with Christ's sacrifice on the cross in worship of His Father.

Contact the parish office for more information.

THAT MAN IS YOU! is an interactive men's program focused on the development of male leadership in the modern world. It combines the best research from science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society. It takes place every Friday morning from 6:30 to 7:30 am at the Mile Bluff Clinic in Mauston, on the second floor in the Community Center. The format is a short social, a 20 minute video, and a group discussion with a couple of questions from the video. While regular attendance brings the greatest value, attend the sessions you can. For questions contact Steve at Steve@Hesprich.com / cell: 608-400-2638.
