A message from Fr. Cryton,

The Christians with attitude of Gratitude

The 28th Sunday of the ordinary time invites us to become mature Christians with the virtue of Gratitude. Today the readings teach us a lesson on gratitude or giving thanks.

The word gratitude as per Luis Romero, comes from the Latin root gratus, meaning "pleasing; welcome; agreeable." Gratus is also the root of related terms such as grace, gratuity and gratis, all signifying positive moods, actions and ideas. This also means to be in contact with the Divine. In other words, being grateful is equivalent to feeling the presence of the Divine in our lives.

An article shared by Lisa Appelo comes out with 12 benefits of being Gratitude. I share a few of them,

1. Gratitude glorifies God: This alone would be reason to give thanks to God. Our gratitude glorifies God as we exalt not the gifts, but the Giver. Gratitude helps us realize all we have comes not because of us, but from God.

2. Gratitude helps us see God: Gratitude opens our spiritual eyes. There's a beautiful cycle in giving God thanks: the more we thank Him, the more we see Him working in us and around us. Gratitude helps us sense God's presence, His personal care and His perfect timing.

3. Gratitude brings peace: Count your blessings, not sheep we're told to get rid of the worry keeping us up at night. Gratitude helps us see that God's hand is all over our circumstances. And God tells us when we give him our thanks, He gives us supernatural peace.

4. Gratitude brings contentment: It's said that gratitude makes what we have enough. If we aren't grateful for what God has given us, getting more won't satisfy us either. Being thankful is the key to contentment.

5. Gratitude leads to joy: The overflow of gratitude is joy. Realizing God's abundant goodness, even in the hard, is a gateway for joy. Psalms 126 shows this so clearly as the Hebrew exiles sang thanks to God for bringing them back to Israel.

6. Gratitude guards against envy: Envy makes us want what someone else has. I mean, we deserve it! Gratitude makes us realize God has given us far more than we deserve. Because there's enough for everyone, we can cheer rather than compare. A heart wholly grateful has no room left for envy.

7. Gratitude is a testimony: When we thank God openly and acknowledge what He's done for us, we proclaim a personal, caring God to the world around us. We show that contentment and peace come not from what we have but Who we know.

Give thanks to the LORD and proclaim his greatness. Let the whole world know what he has done. Psalm 105:1

THANK YOU to everyone who participated in the first youth event this past Saturday, October 1st! There are more events coming up which will be announced soon.

Also a big thank you to Fr. Zoy for visiting, his presentation, and presiding at Masses last weekend!

October is the Month of the Holy Rosary!

The Blessed Virgin Mary promised to Saint Dominic and to all who follow that "Whatever you ask in the Rosary will be granted." She left for all Christians Fifteen Promises to those who recite the Holy Rosary.

Throughout the month of October we will publish the 15 promises in 4 parts because of their length. Here are the first 4 promises:

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. It will cause good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for Eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means!

"The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary."

—St. Francis de Sales

~ World Mission Sunday ~ October 23rd

The weekend of October 22nd & 23rd we will be taking a second collection to support the priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. Please be as generous as you can, and please continue to offer prayers for them and all those in need around the world.

Rosary Coast to Coast!

Please join us this Saturday, October 15th at Noon on the front lawn of the church grounds to pray the rosary and participate in the national campaign of the Rosary Coast to Coast! This is the 105th Anniversary which is coordinated nationally by Tradition, Family and Property and its America Needs Fatima campaign. For questions or comments on the national campaign, visit their website www.ANF.org.
