A message from Fr. Cryton,

We are Called to be His Witnesses

We celebrate the World mission Sunday this weekend. In 1926 Pope Pius XI instituted Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927. This day is celebrated in all the local Churches as the feast of catholicity and universal solidarity so Christians the world over will recognize their common responsibility with regard to the evangelization of the world.

Let me share some thoughts from the message released by Pope Francis for the 2022 World Mission Day. The theme for this year is "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). The Holy Father recalls the bond between every missionary and Christ himself,

- First: To be sent, as a missionary of the Father, "His faithful witness", and remembers that the Church's sole mission is to bear witness to Christ.
- Second: The Pontiff underlines the plural form of the exhortation "you shall be my witnesses". It speaks of the community-ecclesial dimension of the missionary call, and expresses the fact that no missionary acts alone and on his behalf, but in every circumstance, "performs an act of the Church," as Pope Francis says citing St. Paul VI.
- Third: Above all to live the mission entrusted to them. Not only to bear witness, but also and above all to be witnesses of Christ. "Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses." (St. Paul VI). In evangelization, the example of a Christian life and the proclamation of Christ are inseparable. One is at the service of the other. They are the two lungs with which any community must breathe, if it is to be missionary."

Finally, in the last part of the message, the Pontiff highlights where the missionary can draw energy, strength and stimuli. It is the part dedicated to the passage "You will receive the strength from the Holy Spirit". Indeed, He is always the protagonist of the mission, He who was able to give "strength, courage and wisdom" to the first disciples, who "had previously been weak, fearful and closed." Hence the reference of Francis to cultivate the life of prayer, which, he emphasizes, - has a fundamental role in missionary life which is also the theme of liturgy of the word this weekend.
