A message from Fr. Cryton

Ways to open up to the Holy Spirit

As we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost this weekend, we are called to become worthy recipients of the Holy Spirit. Fr. Ed Broom points out ten specific ways that we can deepen our knowledge, love, intimacy and union with the Holy Spirit and thereby allow Him to do the work of transforming us from sinners into saints. Let me share some of them.

Gifts of the Holy Spirit: You received the Gifts of the Holy Spirit the day of your Baptism. These Gifts were fortified the day of your Confirmation. However, these Gifts must be used and exercised. If these Gifts are not used then they become rusty, dormant, and inactive. Memorize them and study them. Here they are: Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Piety and Fear of the Lord. These gifts, according to St. Thomas Aquinas, perfect our intellect and our will.

Silence: We must cultivate zones of silence in our daily lives, even though many of us have to combine the Martha and Mary (The Active and the Contemplative) in a harmonious balance. Still the danger is to launch ourselves into a frenetic activism whereby there is little time for prayer and much less for silence. The Holy Spirit speaks to a heart that is ready to listen in silence. With Samuel in the temple, we should pray: “Speak O Lord for your servant is listening.”

Be Vigilant: Be aware of the workings of the Holy Spirit. The workings of “The sweet Guest of the soul” are the direct opposite of the devil. How does the Holy Spirit work? St. Ignatius of Loyola specifies how the Good Spirit works. He strengthens our resolve to follow Jesus and fortifies our faith, hope, charity. He infuses peace and joy and energy to follow the Lord. He encourages us to lift our mind to heaven. He consoles us with the thoughts of the eternal salvation of our soul. Therefore, do not allow the devil to discourage you, but let the Holy Spirit encourage and strengthen you.

Mary and the Holy Spirit: Mary is the Daughter of God the Father, the Mother of God the Son, and she is the Mystical Spouse of the Holy Spirit. St. Maximilian Kolbe has written brilliantly on the intimate relationship between Mary and the Holy Spirit. Also, Saint Louis de Montfort has gone so far in saying: “Those who love Mary, the Holy Spirit flings Himself into that soul,” if you like, as a powerful Frisbee cutting through the air going from one hand to the next. If you want to have a powerful invasion in your heart of the Holy Spirit, a personal Pentecost experience in your life, then why not turn to Mary. As the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles the day of Pentecost through Mary’s prayers and presence, He can descend into your soul through the prayers and presence of Mary. “Come Holy Spirit, come, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary.”

Fr. John Potaczek installed Fr. Cryton as the Pastor of St. Mary Parish last Saturday, May 20th at the 7 pm Mass.

Did You Know/Tour of the Church

This week we will look at the pair of bowing and kneeling Angels up in our Sacred Space! Psalm 95:6 says, "Come, let us worship and bow down, Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker." Bowing and kneeling have long been associated with worship and reverence (see 2 Chronicles 6:13; Psalm 138:2; Daniel 6:10). In fact, the Hebrew word for "worship" actually means "bow down."

Our pair of windows are placed in such a way that the bowing and kneeling angels draw our attention to the main Altar and the tabernacle; the place where Our Living God is housed. Knowing that bowing and kneeling are not the only forms for reverence and worship Our hearts can be in a continual state of worship and prayer, even as we go about our days. A. W. Tozer wrote, "The goal of every Christian should be to live in a state of unbroken worship." When that is the goal of our lives, kneeling, bowing, lying prostrate, and walking down the street are all postures of prayer and worship that are pleasing to God.

SEVEN WAYS TO HONOR MARY IN MAY (Part 4 of 4)

6. CELEBRATE

Celebrate Our Lady with a delicious family Marian-themed meal. Since the herb rosemary is associated with Mary, bake a rosemary chicken meal and a Bundt cake formed in the shape of a crown with roses on the top. The crown-shaped, colorful dessert will remind you of Mary's queenship.

7. PRACTICE CHARITY FOR THE LOVE OF MARY

Select a feast day in May, and do a kind deed for another. Consider donating to Holy Land Christians in need. Your support could bring life-giving hope to someone in a desperate circumstance. Remember to pray for those who are struggling today and ask Our Lady to pray for them.
