A Message from Fr. Cryton,

Called to live the Eucharist

We are in the 18th week of the ordinary time. The Church also invites us to celebrate the Feast of Transfiguration today. As we are in the second year of Eucharistic Revival, let me share some thoughts from Late Pope Saint John Paul II on Eucharist. “The Eucharist, is at one and the same time a sacrifice-sacrament, a communion sacrament and a presence-sacrament.” Let us go deep into his thoughts.

FIRST, THE EUCHARIST AS SACRIFICE-SACRAMENT: The language we are hearing is a bit strange: sacrifice-sacrament. What does the Pope mean he means that the sacrifice of the Mass is, of course, a sacrifice because in the Mass we have the same Priest and Victim, Jesus Christ, who offered Himself on the Cross for the redemption of the world. But while being a sacrifice, in which Christ continues to offer Himself in an unbloody manner to His Heavenly Father, the Mass is also a Sacrament. How is the Mass a sacrament? It is a sacrament because, like all sacraments, it confers the grace it signifies. The Mass is a source of grace; it is a channel of grace; it is a means, in fact, a cause of grace.

SECOND, THE EUCHARIST IS A COMMUNION-SACRAMENT: The Eucharist is a communion-sacrament is well-known. In fact, I suppose for many people, this is the only idea they have of the Eucharist as sacrament. What do we understand by communion as a sacrament? By communion as a sacrament, we understand that provided a person is in God's friendship and has the minimum good intentions, he receives divine grace from the reception of the Eucharist. He receives an increase of sanctifying grace, actual graces, and the special sacramental grace of a greater love of God and of others from every Holy Communion worthily received. Holy Communion is the principal source of strength they need to live with others, day after day, in patience and humility and generosity, in a word, in Christ-like charity.

THIRD, THE EUCHARIST AS PRESENCE-SACRAMENT: We have one more phase of the Eucharist to consider: in the Holy Father's language, the Eucharist as presence-sacrament. What does the Pope mean? He meant that the Eucharist confers grace not only through the Mass and through Holy Communion but through the fact that Christ is physically present in what we may casually call the Blessed Sacrament. Faith tells us, it is the self-same Jesus present in the Eucharist as walked the streets of Palestine and worked miracles just by being there. So too, Christ's physical presence in the Eucharist, where it is the same identical Jesus, is a sacrament because it pours out or emanates, or radiates divine power on everyone, to some degree but in the greatest abundance on those who respond to this Eucharistic presence with faith and even external signs of piety.

Lastly, the Mass is never ended but it is always open-ended. At Dismissal Rite, the priest or a deacon says: “The Mass is ended, go in peace and preach the good news.” In other words when we go home, we have with us the message of Jesus and His Body and share these to one another.

Did You Know/Tour of the Church By Deacon Tom

Did You Know/ Tour of the Church

On the left side of the sanctuary is the statue of our Blessed Mother. She is clothed in white with a blue cloak with her foot on a serpent standing a globe with a crescent moon and her head and hands in a praying posture. Let's look at the symbolism represented in our statue.

- Her white dress represents her innocence, purity and virginity.
- Her blue cloak represents her divine status. Her veil is called "Sancta Camisia"
- Her standing on the serpent represents her victory over the devil and her redeeming Eve's original sin.
- Her standing on a globe represents the entire world and everyone in it.
- Her standing on a crescent moon represents her victory over time and space.
- Her head and hands in a praying posture represents her praying for you and her praying with you interceding for your prayer intentions.

The Eucharist: At the Heart of the Scriptures with Mark Hart MARK HART (the renowned "Bible Geek")

It's easy to fall into a routine and lose sight of the little miracles all around us. Unfortunately, it is even easy to lose sight of the greatest miracle of all, happening right in front of us.

Join internationally renowned Biblical teacher Mark Hart to:

- Exhale and take time for yourself.
- Engage more deeply with the incredible miracle that is the Eucharist!
- Understand better what Jesus has proclaimed about this Sacrament of His Body and Blood.
