A Message from Fr. Cryton,

Life Messages on Trinity Sunday

This Sunday we celebrate one of the great solemnities of the liturgical year. We celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, the fundamental mystery, the most important of all of the mysteries, of our Catholic Christian faith. Let us reflect a few life messages with Fr. Antony Kadavil on this Trinity Sunday.

1) We need to respect ourselves and respect others: Our conviction of the presence of the Triune God within us should help us to esteem ourselves as God's holy dwelling place, to behave well in His holy presence, and to lead purer and holier lives, practicing acts of justice and charity. This Triune Presence should also encourage us to respect and honor others as "Temples of the Holy Spirit."

2) We need to be aware of God as the Source of our strength and courage: The awareness and conviction of the presence of God within us, gives us the strength to face the manifold problems of life with Christian courage. It was such a conviction that prompted the early Christian martyrs, when taken to their execution, to shout the heroic prayer of Faith from the Psalms: "The Lord of might is with us, our God is within us, and the God of Jacob is our helper" (Psalm 46).

3) We need to see the Trinity as the model for our Christian families: We are created in love to be a community of loving persons, just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are united in love. From the day of our Baptism, we have belonged to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. How privileged we are to grow up in such a beautiful Family! Hence, let us turn to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in prayer every day. We belong to the Family of the Triune God. The love, unity and joy in the relationship among the Father, Son and Holy Spirit should be the supreme model of our relationships within our Christian families. Our families become truly Christian when we live in a relationship of love with God and with others.

4) We are called to become more like the Triune God through all our relationships: We are made in God's image and likeness. Just as God is God only in a Trinitarian relationship, so we can be fully human only as one member of a relationship of three partners. The self needs to be in a horizontal relationship with all other people and in a vertical relationship with God. In that way, our life becomes Trinitarian like that of God. Modern society follows the so-called "I-and-I" principle of unbridled individualism and the resulting consumerism. But the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity challenges us to adopt an "I-and-God-and-neighbor" principle: "I am a Christian insofar as I live in a relationship of love with God and other people."

Trinitarian spirituality is one of solidarity between and among persons. It is a way of living the Gospel attentive to the requirements of justice, understood as rightly ordered relationships between and among persons. (Dictionary of Spirituality)

COMMENTARY ON THE INVOCATIONS OF THE LITANY OF LORETO (Part 14)

Virgin most faithful, pray for us! “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord” – this word of Mary declares her faithfulness in its entirety. In the convictions of the Blessed Virgin Mary, this meant: “Do, O Lord with me as you please, whatever you wish, whether it be pleasant or also sorrowful – I am completely ready, at Your disposition, I who am your servant!” In this fidelity to God, she remained unwavering: in the inhospitable stable at Bethlehem, during the exile in Egypt, in the times of need at the home in Nazareth, and finally, during the Way of the Cross of her Son, marked with blood, at the foot of the dreadful tree of sorrow on Golgotha.

Virgin most merciful, pray for us! The Gospel also tells us about the kindness of our Mother. After all, she had complete freedom in rendering consent to God’s proposal. But she accepts it, not pondering at all the spiritual and physical sacrifices connected with it; in her generous love, she only took into account our redemption. If already here on earth she encountered the proof of her merciful love, how much must she care for her children from heaven?
