A Message from Fr. Cryton,

A Call to Join in our Music Ministry – July – The Month of Ministries

“Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth. Sing to the Lord, praise his name; proclaim his salvation day after day.” - Psalm 96:1-2

Music holds a sacred place in our liturgy, it lifts our prayers, deepens our worship, and opens our hearts to the mystery of God. As St. Augustine said, “He who sings, prays twice.” The role of the choir is not to perform, but to serve: to lead the congregation in song, to enhance the beauty of our celebrations, and to help us all encounter the divine through sacred music.

At St. Mary's, our choir members are not just singers or musicians, they are ministers who bring life to our liturgical celebrations. Whether it's through a quiet hymn of reflection or a joyful Alleluia, their voices and instruments help create a space where the soul can meet God.

Church music serves multiple vital purposes in our faith community:

- Worship and Praise: Music allows us to express our love and reverence for God in a uniquely powerful way
- Scripture in Song: Many hymns and contemporary songs are rooted in biblical truth, helping us memorize and meditate on God's Word
- Community Building: Singing together creates bonds of fellowship and unity among believers
- Spiritual Formation: Music touches our hearts and souls, often moving us in ways that spoken word alone cannot
- Evangelism: Beautiful music can draw newcomers and open hearts to the Gospel message

As we celebrate this Month of Ministries, we warmly invite anyone with a love for music, whether you sing or play an instrument, to consider joining our music ministry.

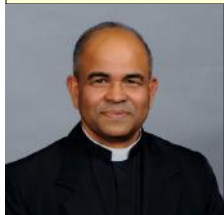

Come be part of something beautiful. Let your voice or your instrument become a vessel of grace in our liturgy.

“Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts.” - Colossians 3:16

Jubilee Year of Hope: Need Hope? Take a Minute to Get to Know “the God of All Hope” (Rom 15:13) | Our hope is in Jesus because we know that we can trust Him. Why? The reason is because all the promises of the Old Testament were fulfilled by Christ. The initial promise God made to us was given when our first parents committed the original sin. Through their free act of choosing against God, Adam and Eve became separated from Him, with the loss of God's life within them, which we call sanctifying grace. Thankfully, God promised a Savior to draw us back into union with Himself. Jesus came and gave His life for us on the cross and rose from the dead, opening the gates of heaven and allowing for this re-union for us with the Father. Throughout this Jubilee Year of Hope, let us ask for an increase of hope, and trust that God is a promise keeper.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection July 27, 2025 - Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time GN 18:20-32; PS138:1-3, 6-8; COL 2:12-14; LK 11:1-13

In our Gospel reading from Luke, some of Jesus's disciples ask our Lord to teach them how to pray. Jesus immediately gives them the beautiful prayer, which we, of course, call the Our Father. The Our Father is truly a prayer of stewardship. In it, we intimately call upon God as Father. We ask that His will be done (not ours!) and that His kingdom come (not ours!). In other words, we remember that He is our Creator, and everything belongs to Him. Our focus in life should be on His priorities, not our own. Then we ask Him to supply our needs (to give us our daily bread), forgive our sins, and protect us from evil. That is, we proclaim our complete trust in His provision for us and His mercy towards us. We, too, have the responsibility to extend mercy ourselves, as we forgive those who sin against us. As we pray the words of the Our Father, we acknowledge this fundamental truth about ourselves and God: God is our Father, and we are beloved and infinitely blessed to be His children. This forms the foundation of a stewardship lifestyle. At the end of the Gospel passage, Jesus encourages us to build a relationship with the Father: Ask Him, seek Him, and knock on His door! He eagerly anticipates blessing us, His children. Keep this in mind throughout the week; then go out and be a source of blessing to others! Stewardship is as joyous and straightforward as that.
