A Message from Fr. Cryton,

The Month of February – Begins with Blessings

The Sunday Blessing: As we continue our journey through Ordinary Time, today's Gospel presents the Beatitudes—Jesus' blueprint for true happiness. They invite us to live differently: with humility, mercy, purity of heart, and a deep trust in God. The Beatitudes remind us that holiness is not found in power or possessions, but in a life rooted in love, compassion, and faithfulness to God.

The Blessing of Candles: This weekend, we also celebrate the Blessing of Candles to mark the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (February 2). When Mary and Joseph brought the child Jesus to the Temple, Simeon proclaimed Him as “a light to enlighten the nations.” Candles are blessed on this feast as a powerful symbol of Christ, the Light of the World. As these candles are used in our homes and liturgies, they remind us that Christ's light dispels darkness and that, through our baptism, we are called to carry and reflect that light in our daily lives.

The Blessing of Throats: Additionally, we will have the Blessing of Throats this weekend in honor of St Blaise, whose feast day is February 3. St Blaise is remembered for his intercession in healing illnesses of the throat. This blessing invites us to pray for good health and to be mindful of how we use the gift of speech—to speak words that heal, encourage, and build up others.

Our commitment to live as children of the Light, guided by Christ in all that we do. May these celebrations deepen our faith and strengthen

Trust! God's Gift of Hope Never Disappoints

Christian hope anchors our souls to the promises of God, who is faithful and true. It assures us that no matter our failures, His mercy and love are stronger. It is with deepest sympathies that we inform you that Mary Puetz passed away on Monday, January 24. Our prayers are with the family through this difficult time. Service information will be provided at a later date.

Rebuild My Church Updates | The “No Offense Huddle.” Check out another short video. Fr. Derek Sakowski explains what it means for our parishes to be fully alive on mission. Football fans are familiar with a “no huddle offense.” But what happens when some of us prefer a “no offense huddle”? Find the video here (<http://www.dioc.org/rebuildmychurch/updates>).

The Parish Council would like to establish a Social Concerns Committee within our parish. Please reach out to Deacon Tom with any thoughts or ideas regarding this new endeavor! 608-415-1165 or in person.

Salad bar - We are still looking to rehome the salad bar from the church basement. We are open to offer or donation. For questions or inquiries, contact Linda Lochner at 847-867-4941.

With the recent events in Minneapolis, Bishop Battersby has asked all the faithful to join him in prayer. Let us pray for peace, for healing where there is pain, and for hope where there is fear. May God grant wisdom to all, comfort to those who are hurting, and lead us together toward a peaceful and just resolution. Through prayer, we may become instruments of God's peace in a world that deeply needs it.

“Called and Gifted” Workshop | March 21, 2026 | Our Lady of Peace Parish in Marshfield: An in-person “Called and Gifted” workshop will be offered on Saturday, March 21, 2026. The Office for Catechesis & Evangelization and the Marshfield parishes will be hosting the workshop. The “Called & Gifted” discernment process offered by the Catherine of Siena Institute has been used since 1993 by over 200,000 Catholics around the world. It is designed to help Christians discern specific charisms in their lives. Charisms, or spiritual gifts, are special abilities given to all Christians by the Holy Spirit. God calls each of us to (and gifts us for) the work that we most love. We want to know what gifts God has given to us because when we use them, our life is enriched with purpose and joy. The “Called and Gifted” workshop will be held at Our Lady of Peace Parish in Marshfield. Further details to follow.

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection February 1, 2026 - Fourth Sunday In Ordinary Time ZEP 2:3 – 3: 12-13; PS 146: 6-10; 1 COR 1: 26-31; MT 5: 1 -12A | The Gospel Reading for today is commonly known as the Sermon on the Mount. Many consider it the epitome of Jesus' teachings. To be sure, it tells us how we are to live and the attitudes we are to adopt. We must remember that those who were waiting and hoping for the Messiah expected a military leader who would lead them in battle against their oppressors. Reflect on how these teachings challenge your daily actions and attitudes, thereby deepening your spiritual life. In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus offers a perspective that invites us to embrace spiritual humility. He begins the Beatitudes with "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Recognizing our own spiritual poverty can foster humility and dependence on God's guidance, which are essential to our growth and faith journey. That is why we often say that living God-centered lives is central to stewardship. Being a disciple of Christ means being a steward of our many gifts and blessings. Some scholars believe that Jesus may have given this sermon often during His ministry. Those who followed Jesus and became the earliest Christians, the first members of the Church, were fond of quoting and referring to what the Lord said on this occasion. As stated, Jesus provides the secret to living a good life. If we rely on Him and follow Him, we will be blessed.
